

How can I renew a trademark?

To renew a trademark registration, it is necessary to submit a form, stating the registration number, and the same documents required for a trademark application. If a trademark registration was granted "for the entire class of products" of a given class, due to the amendment of our law, now it is necessary to detail the products of each class. If the applicant wants to keep the broadest description of products, it is suggested to amend the description by including the class headings of Nice classification. Otherwise, it is necessary a detail of the products. Example Class 25: Child clothing. To submit the renewal form it is possible file it personally or via Internet. It is important to keep in mind that in the renewal process it is not necessary the payment of initial fees or the publication in the Official Journal.
