

Mission

INAPI's main mission is the contribution to national economic development by stimulating entrepreneurship, innovation and creativity through the protection of industrial property rights and knowledge management. To accomplish this, it is necessary to provide with processes ensuring efficiency and quality as well as accessibility and certainty of information.